This is the month of weddings.
In churches all over this brave land our ours, thousands of interpid young couples may be seen marching up the altar, while their respective families occupy the pews above the white ribbon, and exhibit the curious psychic phenomenon that is always to be observed on such occasions.

And that is, that the bride's family at a wedding invariably wears a festive air, and look pleased, and proud and joyful as those who have just pulled off a good thing, while the bridegroom's family are invariably sad and mournful, and weep through the decremony, and register the aspect of those attending a funeral.

live with them. If you have a home of your own, stay in it. If you have not, board with somebody you know, if you can't afford that go to some old lady's home to live but as your value your children's happiness don't go and live with them.

There isn't any middle-aged woman on earth, who has run a house of her own, and raised a family, who can keep from trying to manage every-body about her, and there isn't a young person on earth who doesn't resent it. Every bride wants to keep house according to her own ideas. Every young husband wants to be the head of his house, and neither one can do it, if mother is on the premises.

DOCTOR DISCOVERS NEW RUPTURE REMEDY

Akron. Ohio. June 21.—A prominent Ohio physician has discovered a wonderful new method, which is completely revolutionizing the treatment of rupture. This remedy is totally different from any other—no operation—no cutting, and nothing to "rub on." Anyone can use it without pain or danger and without losting an hour from work.

Relief is felt almost immediately and recovery is usually so rapid as to seem intraculous Anyone who is ruptured may obtain full information regarding this remarkable discovery, by writing E. H. Scott, Hernis Specialist, 472-D. Scott Eldg. Akron. Ohio, who will send interesting booklet in plain sealed wrapper.—Advertisement.
